
Mali Taghizadeh

Lifetime: 19/12/1951 – 25/09/2023

About me | Media | Tributes

Mali Taghizadeh passed away on September 25, 2023, in Roswell, Georgia. Mali brought warmth, love, and grace to everyone who had the privilege of knowing her. She was one of four siblings and is preceded in death by her sister Azar. She is survived by her devoted sister Mehri and loving brother Farhad. For over 40 years, she shared a beautiful life and marriage with her husband, Javad Taghizadeh. Together, they built a life centered around family, love, and dedication. Mali was the proud and loving mother of three children: Azadeh, Farrokh, and Cyrus. She poured her heart into raising her family and later became a cherished grandmother to seven adoring grandchildren. Her love knew no bounds—whether she was cooking delicious meals for her family, listening with compassion, or taking her grandkids on special one-on-one outings, she did everything with selflessness and care. She worked faithfully alongside her husband while nurturing her home and children, always placing the needs of others before her own. Mali was not only a devoted wife and mother but also a friend, a confidant, and the very heart of her family. She is also survived by two loving daughters-in-law and a caring son-in-law, all of whom she welcomed with open arms and treated as her own. Mali was the glue that held her family together. Her absence leaves a deep and unfillable void in our hearts. She will be missed more than words can ever express. Her kindness, strength, and unwavering love live on in all of us, and though she is no longer physically here, her spirit and memory will remain forever. We love you endlessly, and we miss you deeply.

You can enter text in the profile edit mode.